JTLP ONLINE

The full text and abstracts of all Pittsburgh Journal of Technology Law & Policy articles published in previous issues can be found at http://tlp.law.pitt.edu. Our site also contains Currents Magazine, an online member-authored forum of short pieces on cutting-edge topics in the field of technology law. Our members also author student notes that discuss novel issues in technology law and policy offering in-depth legal analysis. Additionally, JTLP Online features general information about the Journal, and text of all past volumes.

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

The Editorial Board of the Pittsburgh Journal of Technology Law & Policy invites the submission of unsolicited manuscripts. Submissions may include articles, essays, book reviews, case notes, or comments concerning any aspect of the relationship between technology and the law. If any portion of a manuscript has been previously published, the author should so indicate. On certain scholarly works, the Journal will publish concurrently with another Journal.

Format. Authors may submit manuscripts in electronic or hardcopy form, though electronic submissions are strongly encouraged. Electronic submissions should be sent as attachments in Microsoft Word format to pitjtlp.submissions@gmail.com. Authors should submit double-spaced, single-sided manuscripts with generous margins. We regret that submissions cannot be returned. Authors should retain an exact copy of any material submitted.

Citations. All citations should conform to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (Columbia Law Review Ass’n et al. eds., 18th ed. 2005). In addition, the author should include his or her credentials, including full name, degrees earned, academic or professional affiliations, and citations to all previously published legal articles.
Copyrighted Material. If a manuscript contains any copyrighted table, chart, graph, illustration, photograph, or more than eight lines of text, the author must obtain written permission from the copyright holder for use of the material. A photocopy of such written permission should accompany the submission.

Mailing Address. Pitt JLP highly prefers electronic submissions sent as Microsoft Word attachments to pittjlp.submissions@gmail.com, but also accepts hardcopy manuscripts sent to:
